Theme Verse – Deuteronomy 6:5-9

You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

School Handbook

Introduction

The programs of FCCS are geared directly to the needs of parents and children who have chosen homeschooling as an educational alternative. FCCS assists parents by offering them a system of encouragement and support as well as a basic framework of structure, a means of accountability, and resources for further information and training.

FCCS offers children access to group activities and learning experiences that can enhance their academic, social, physical, and emotional development. The program includes but is not limited to co-op classes, standardized achievement tests, play days, and field trips.

Enrollment in FCCS is open to all homeschooling households that are committed to the Lordship of Jesus Christ and are in agreement with our doctrinal statement as well as our policies, procedures, and standards. Home education is a commitment and not a quick fix to any problem.

FCCS requests that each parent/teacher and student maintain scriptural, Christian standards in courtesy, kindness, honesty, and morality; strive to be of unquestionable character; and always act in a very orderly and respectful manner. Students are expected to abide by these standards throughout their enrollment whether at home, at school activities, or elsewhere. Families found to be out of harmony with the scriptural principles of work and life may be invited to withdraw whenever the general welfare of the reputation of Jesus Christ and/or FCCS is diminished.

FCCS is an equal opportunity program and does not exclude families from enrollment in its programs and activities based on race, color, nationality, or ethnic origin.

Acceptance Policy

It is the policy of FCCS to accept only those students who are leaving their current enrollment (from a previous school) on good terms. We reserve the right to refuse any child that has not been in regular attendance in any school for several weeks. No child should ever be withdrawn from their current school before being accepted into a new school, due to the fact that Alabama law requires that children between 6 years and 16 years old be enrolled in some type of school. We cannot support parents who knowingly break the law.

It is the policy of FCCS, that children be supervised at all times. No child or young adult is to be left home alone without adult supervision on a regular basis. We will not accept into our faculty any family that intends to regularly leave their children home alone. This is for the student's safety and overall well-being.

Enrollment

Enrollment in FCCS is open to all home educating households that are committed to the Lordship of Jesus Christ and are in agreement with our doctrinal statement as well as our procedures, policies and standards. Since FCCS is distinctly a Christian organization, it reserves the right to deny enrollment to a family whose religious beliefs or affiliations differ from the FCCS doctrinal statement or standards of conduct.

The primary teaching parent must also be involved in regular church participation and/or ministry. It is our belief that a person's participation in a church or Christian ministry is an indication of their commitment to spiritual growth and maturity. Any family is invited to apply to FCCS, but this does not mean automatic acceptance into the school. Consequently, the school is not obligated to accept all who may apply. Space may also be limited. Early registration is advised.

Application Procedures

Acceptance for enrollment in FCCS is at the discretion of the Administration and leader's board and is based upon the satisfactory completion of all application requirements. This includes, but is not limited to: an interview, the provision of all forms, statements, and records as required by the school: Complete a Student Application, Faculty Application, Statement of Faith, and Pastor's Recommendation and submit it to FCCS along with the $30 Registration Fee.

Upon receipt of your application and fee, you will receive a phone call to schedule a personal interview. All prospective families will be interviewed prior to enrollment by the school intake leaders using a standardized set of questions. This interview is a tool used by FCCS Admissions to determine the reasons for homeschooling, knowledge of homeschooling methods and resources, and readiness for homeschooling, as well as their personal education philosophy and how FCCS can best minister to them. The family will be notified after this interview as to their status with FCCS.

Following completion of steps 1 and 2 and acceptance into FCCS, the family will submit a copy of the child's birth certificate, social security card, and an original blue Immunization form.

Parental Requirements

Once a family has enrolled a child in FCCS, there are several parent/teacher requirements necessary to remain in good standing with the school and its policies.

Parents are responsible to:

Pay all fees no later than the prescribed deadlines. Please see the section on “tuition” for more details.

Keep track of grades. Submission of grades into the provided online reporting program is available to you and quarterly requirement is necessary if you desire transcripts from our office at any time. Submit grades for students by the date given on the academic calendar. The school provides an online reporting program to our families so you can enter the grades electronically. Maintenance of grades is a requirement to be a member of FCCS and failure to comply may result in dismissal.

Maintain daily attendance records. Attendance must be kept and may be recorded in the online reporting program.

Maintain a plan book (daily lesson planner) The administrator will check the plan book during the first semester the family is homeschooling. Your plan book should include special programs and activities such as field trips, educational videos and activities, and all work that is to be accomplished. In addition to “book work”, this would also include private dance and or music lessons, church activities, volunteer work and scouting activities, etc. We suggest you keep your plan books from each year for personal records.

Faithfully comply with all school policies and procedures. At least one parent must be home and available to teach/supervise their child(ren)/student(s) during all planned education hours.

Maintain a personal record of each student’s original grade reports, attendance report, and any other related information for future reference.

Attend a mandatory faculty meeting each August.

Activities and services offered

As a family of FCCS, it is a privilege to participate in school-sponsored activities. Keeping FCCS a place of integrity is the responsibility of not only the school administration, but also support groups leaders, club sponsors, coaches/sports sponsors, class leaders, as well as all students and parents.

Dress and Behavior

Appearance and conduct must be at the highest standard as FCCS does not seek to please the world, but strives to uphold and please Jesus Christ and His standards. Answering to this high authority is the basis for the principles of modesty, appropriateness, distinction from the world, and for the glorification of Christ. This is a heart issue. Outward appearance and conduct reveal a heart attitude. A rebellious spirit occurs when a person deliberately disobeys God’s Word. We desire to maintain a Christ honoring student body who live out God’s Word in their daily lives.

All clothing should be clean and in good repair; not tight fitting, having wear holes or sheer. Any clothing with written or visual messages, advertisements, satanic images or symbols, etc., deemed offensive or inappropriate by school officials may not be worn. Advertisements on clothing for tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, etc. are not permitted.

All clothing must appropriately cover under-clothing (no sagging pants or gaping armholes, etc) and should not reveal mid-rift, cleavage, or any of the seat area whether one is standing or moving.

Please note that posts and pictures on social media that reflect poorly on the school, your family, or the body of Christ may result in a phone call from the School Administrator. Repeated and severe incidents may result in dismissal from the school.

Accreditation

FCCS does not seek accreditation. Adherence to state or county criteria would add nothing to FCCS's program. (School accreditation refers to an evaluation done by an accrediting body to check standards set by a local school system. In this sense, accreditation certifies that a certain amount of floor space is available for school activities, a certain number of books are in the library, etc. Accreditation does not, in itself, guarantee excellence in education, as the current state of public education testifies.) If you are concerned about accreditation, however, we urge you to consult with colleges before enrolling your children in FCCS.

Administration

FCCS administration is available to help the parents/educators with all aspects of homeschooling. If you need assistance choosing curriculum, figuring grades, plan books, or any other area please contact school administration. We are here to provide support and encouragement to the families we minister to.

FCCS administration will maintain a permanent record file on each student enrolled, please note only records entered into the online program will be maintained. Further, the school will provide Church School Enrollment forms at the time of acceptance into the school. This form is sent to your local school superintendent to prove that your child is enrolled in a school and is not truant.

Included in the permanent records for each child will be a copy of the initial enrollment form, the Blue immunization card, a copy of the child's birth certificate, and a copy of the child's Social Security card.

Parents who choose to take on the responsibility of educating their own children must realize that they are solely responsible for their child's education. The administration is here to help guide you as the teacher, but FCCS and its administration cannot be held accountable for the academic progress of any child.

Students Expelled from Other Schools

The general policy is that we do not enroll students who have been expelled, suspended, attended an "alternative" school due to behavior issues, or forced/given the option to withdraw rather than be expelled. Exceptions can be made if the student has been converted subsequent to the expulsion or suspension, but these cases will be carefully examined.

Tuition

New families pay a non-refundable registration fee of $25 due when the family turns in registration papers. Tuition is $300 per year per family. Tuition may be paid in full at the beginning of the year, or payments of $30 per month may be made during the months of August through May. If you choose to make monthly payments, tuition is due by the 16th of every month.

A late fee of $10.00 will be charged by the 21st of the month if payment has not been received and there has been no prior payment arrangement made between the parent and the administration. Communication is key. Should you have an emergency arise and you know you will be late with your tuition, please let us know before the 16th of the month. In most cases, FCCS may be able to waive the late fee if the situation cannot be avoided, and you have made every effort to contact the school.

If tuition goes unpaid for 2 consecutive months without prior arrangements having been made with the administrator, the family will be notified by certified mail that they will be removed from the roll.

If a child is withdrawn from the roll for any reason, the local school officials in that child's school zone will be notified that they are no longer enrolled in our Church School.

Attendance

The State of Alabama has a compulsory attendance law. Children between the ages of seven (7) and sixteen (16) are required by law to attend school regularly for an entire school term. According to Alabama law, if a student withdraws from school at the age of 16, the school must notify the Board of Education, which will result in the subsequent loss of the student's driver's license. The law requires that all educational institutions, public and private, as well as tutors, maintain attendance records. In light of these liabilities and FCCS's commitment to a reputable program, the following policies regarding attendance reports have been instituted:

All FCCS families should strive to make their home education program the best possible. In accordance with the Church School Exclusionary Law, our school year has a required attendance of 170 days. Students who fail to accumulate the minimum required shall have their files and transcripts marked incomplete due to inadequate attendance. Attendance requirements must be completed by May 31st for permanent records. It is the requirement of parents to ensure that their child(ren) will accumulate the minimum number of days prior to May 31st. All FINAL GRADES and ATTENDANCE reports must be received no later than June 15th. Families utilizing a year round schedule may begin to accumulate attendance for the next grade level on June 1.

Grading

FCCS provides a subscription to Homeschool Reporting Online. Once you sign up with FCCS, we will help you get signed up with a private account. You may use this service to submit grades and attendance. You may also input your lesson plans if you desire. As the teacher, you may choose whatever grading scale you would like to use for your child. If you need assistance choosing a grading scale, please contact the administration and we can help guide you. If your child is in high school, you will receive paperwork explaining the requirements for earning credits and graduation.

The dates that grades are due will be determined at the beginning of the school year. Parents are expected to turn in grades in a timely manner. If you need more time to enter your grades, make sure you let the administration know and they will be happy to work with you on this. Failure to submit grades in the online forum will result in an incompleteness in your student's transcript.

Once you have been accepted into FCCS, you will receive an email from the administrator with details on how to set up your school year on the online reporting site.

Standardized Testing

FCCS does not require that families test their students. We do, however, strongly suggest that you consider testing at least every other year during the students' 4, 6, and 8 grades. FCCS will provide testing services every other year. We provide information on how to test your child from home if you choose to do so. Testing your child is helpful for many reasons. First of all, it can give you, the teacher, a good look into what areas your child excels in and also what areas that they might need to work on. Also, testing prepares your child for tests they will need to take later in their educational career.

Violations

When compliance with a school requirement would result in a hardship, it is the responsibility of the family to notify the school of the hardship, prior to a violation, in order to work out a solution or an extension. Such violations include, but are not limited to: delinquent tuition payments, absence from required activities, and overt misconduct. Communication is key. A telephone call or e-mail to the administration will often suffice. In some cases, the school representative may inform the family that a written appeal is required.

When a violation occurs, notice may be given by phone or mail to advise the family of the violation and to seek resolution. If, after receiving a notice, a family does not respond within a period of fourteen (14) days from the date of the notice, the family shall be assumed to be negligent and will be notified in writing by the school administrator that their child(ren) has been removed from enrollment and the academic files closed. The student's local Board of Education will be notified of the withdrawal from FCCS. Such action terminates all of a family's rights and privileges with the school. All existing records will remain on file until transfer is requested, however, no further records will be accepted until the violation is resolved and records will not be transferred until all fees are paid.

Alabama state law

Alabama State law contains no provisions that deal directly with homeschooling. FCCS, however, is a church school operated as a ministry of a local church, and comes under the provisions of the 1982 amendment to the compulsory education law, which stipulates that children attending church schools are not considered truant. As a church school, FCCS oversees off-campus classes conducted by its faculty, thus providing Christian parents a legal way of home schooling. In order to avoid legal problems, it is extremely important for you to comply with all the procedures and regulations of the FCCS. We seek to be in compliance with Alabama compulsory attendance requirements by enrollment in an Alabama church school.

Supervision Requirements

FCCS does not accept responsibility for your children. Just as you are to provide appropriate educational opportunities in your home, you must provide adequate supervision for your children. Section 16-28-17 of Alabama Legal Code provides a truant officer the power to take into custody any school aged child who is unattended by a parent or guardian and who is not at home or at school during public school hours. While there should be no fear of leaving home during the day, children should not be left unsupervised between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. The teaching parent must not work full-time hours during the children's school hours.

Graduation

There is a graduation fee for graduating seniors that will be added to that year's tuition. All graduating seniors are welcome to participate in a walking ceremony that is offered, usually on the 3rd Sunday in May (subject to schedule change).

High School Graduation Requirements and Electives

It is important to note that when planning a student's schedule over four years, it would be wise to check with colleges which are being considered as to their specific admission requirements concerning high school curriculum. Even colleges within Alabama differ in their policies. This process needs to start in the eighth grade.

Families of students in grades 7-12 are strongly encouraged to subscribe to HSLDA's e-newsletter, "Home Schooling Through High School."

FCCS will offer a general diploma and a college preparatory diploma. The requirements for each diploma are listed below.

The awarding of a credit is subject to the oversight and review of FCCS administration. Before a senior is awarded a diploma, we must have final grades and attendance for the year. Also, all fees must be paid.

FCCS will elect a Valedictorian from the senior class each spring. To be considered for this, the student must meet the following requirements:

- Be willing to participate in a graduation ceremony.
- The student must submit a portfolio including classes taken, current grades, community service hours, and extra curricular activities to the committee by April 1 of the graduating year.
- Must be in good standing with FCCS including all fees and tuition.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION for CHRISTIANS

Personality conflicts and misunderstandings do happen. It is important that we agree on how to deal with these situations, should they arise. Based on Matthew 18, if conflict arises, parents should seek to resolve the issue on their own. If either party is unsatisfied or resolution* cannot be met, the parties then need to seek the assistance of a member of the administration.

*resolve/resolution — achieved when all parties reach mutual agreement or understanding.

1. PRAY If you have a problem with a fellow Christian, you should definitely talk to somebody about it. Remember that SOMEBODY must be God. Pray for guidance and wisdom. Put aside any feelings of anger or hurt. We must seek to please and honor God: by depending on His wisdom, power, and love; by faithfully obeying His commands; and by seeking to maintain a loving, merciful and forgiving attitude. (I Corinthians 10:31) Forgive the other person. Ask God to cause you to be receptive so that you can hear the other person's view.

2. GO PRIVATELY to that person and discuss one on one what you see as the problem. Go in the love of God, not in anger. Without attacking others or dwelling on their wrongs, we must take responsibility for our own contributions to conflicts – confessing our own sins, asking God to help us change any attitudes and habits that lead to the conflict, and seeking to repair any harm we may have caused. (Matthew 7:1-5) Determine if the problem is a difference of opinion or something contrary to the Word of God. If this initial discussion does not settle the disagreement, both of you should pray and then meet together with an intermediary able to aid in settling the issue.

3. MEET TOGETHER with a person within FCCS having the authority to settle the issue. We may choose to overlook minor offenses, or we will talk directly and graciously with those whose offenses are deemed too serious to overlook. When a conflict with another Christian cannot be resolved in private, we will ask others in the body of Christ to help us settle the matter in a biblical manner. (Matthew 18:5-17)

4. GO and BE RECONCILED. Be willing to let it be settled, even if you disagree with the outcome. Instead of allowing relationships to wither, we should actively pursue genuine peace and reconciliation – forgiving others as God, for Christ's sake, has forgiven us, and seeking just and mutually beneficial solutions to our differences. (II Corinthians 5:17-21)

How this works for FCCS Administration and faculty: As a family, make a commitment to be under the leadership of FCCS Administration and faculty. They are Christian men/women, but not infallible. Pray for them. When you have a concern, pray and then discuss it privately with the person involved. Lastly, if you can't settle the issue, contact another member of the administration or other appropriate authority.

>> This doesn't work when:

- You don't go to the person, but talk to others about it. Parents, please don't discuss issues in front of your children (like in the car on the way home), but pray together as a family. Complaining to those unable to initiate a solution creates discord. "These six things the LORD hates and yes, the seventh is an abomination to Him – sowing discord among the brethren." Proverbs 6:16-19. FCCS does not tolerate the spreading of rumors, petitions, or dissension within the membership. Also, no one should be posting any ill about any other FCCS families on social media.
- You want to remain anonymous. There is NO Scriptural reference to support this.

- You want to go “over someone’s head” and discuss something without the person involved. This is also unBiblical.

>> YOUR RESPONSIBILITY IF YOU ARE NOT PART OF THE PROBLEM OR PART OF THE SOLUTION:

If someone wants to complain to you about someone or something, DO NOT LISTEN. ASK THEM – Am I part of the problem or part of the solution? Are you coming to me so that I can go with you to be a witness to resolve the issue? IF NOT – Offer to pray for them and then tell them to take it directly to the source.

Activity Notes:

Activities Communication, using the Slack app

All FCCS members are required to join SLACK and find and utilize the appropriate channels for their children’s activities, which is our main means of event communication. New events will be linked in the #announcements channel, usually 3-4 weeks before the activity’s date, and each family must join those individually. Members are responsible for reading Slack to learn important announcements related to any activity they sign up for. We highly recommend you check Slack on a regular basis, especially the day before and morning of any event you are attending! If you need help with learning how to use Slack, please ask for help. We have several leaders able to give aid.

Field Trip Guidelines

Using your personal planning calendar, prayerfully consider which field trips will best benefit your family. Please note age limitations and distance of trips as these may help you decide which ones you cannot do. Some field trips may accommodate only a limited number of participants. There will be a “sign-up and pay by” date for each trip to secure your ability to participate. We schedule at least one field trip every month (with the exception of December), therefore do not stress yourself by trying to go to every one, particularly if you have several children under 7 years old. Certain field trip locations are on a rotation, so it may be wiser to wait until next time around for some of these trips.

If you sign up for but later discover you cannot make a field trip, please notify the Field Trip Coordinator as soon as you know so that she may be able to make needed adjustments. All field trips require pre-payment and a group check once we arrive, and many require a head count for planning. In most cases, refunds will not be able to be given so be conscientious before canceling any given event you have signed up for.

Please make every effort to be on time! Theaters, ballet, etc. will not wait for stragglers. It can be distracting to others if you are late. In some cases, late entry is not allowed.

We are a school group. Review with your children basic safety protocols such as staying with mom, how to form a waiting line, and raising one’s hand to request permission from the host to speak.

Be ready to offer assistance to a friend if she is trying to discipline an unruly toddler or calm a fussy baby. Ask to help with the little one or to take the older child while mom is training or calming the others.

If you are the one with a fussy baby or restless toddler and it is a field trip that is in an enclosed area, please leave the area so the little one will not disrupt the program or distract others.

If a trip has age restrictions, please abide by them! These are ~~most likely~~ established by the business or hosting agency and will likely result in your being asked to leave.

We are under their authority while on their premises and should be Christ-like examples to those who make reasonable requests (even if we disagree with their judgment).

Our field trips are limited to FCCS families only. Feel free to bring grandparents when the numbers are not limited, and please obtain permission from the field trip coordinator before inviting any other family members.

A thank you note from you or your child is always appropriate, particularly if the trip is to an organization that doesn't usually cater to schools (private farm, business, etc.)

The supervision policy of FCCS extends to the field trip arena. Parents are required to keep an eye on their own children on any trip. Parents are expected to go along on any field trip their children attend unless they have made prior arrangements with another parent to be in charge of their children for them. In order to represent Christ and our school well, misbehaving children who are not being reprimanded by their parent or guardian will be corrected by the field trip coordinator or Administrator.

Students and parents are strongly encouraged to remember that they are not only representing our school, but homeschoolers in general when on a field trip. Please encourage your children to be on their best behavior and see that they are appropriately dressed.

Co-op Guidelines

As homeschool parents, we feel that God has called and enabled us to homeschool our children. We feel that cooperatively we can provide enrichment opportunities that may not be possible on our own.

Parents who sign up for participation are required to serve at co-op in one of the following areas: lead teacher, class helper, in nursery or preschool, floater, hall monitor or misc. Parents must remain on the church premises at all times. Since we are a true co-op and not a drop off educational program, a child may not participate in the co-op unless his/her parent is on site. (There are some exceptions for high school students only, subject to administrative review). All educating parents must choose to sign up to help in some capacity.

Only families enrolled in FCCS may participate in the co-op program.

Fees & Payment/ Refund Policy

1. All fees must be paid before classes begin.
2. No refunds will be given for class fees within 2 weeks prior to the date classes are to begin.

3. In order to receive the teacher discount for class fees, the parent must be the dedicated teacher for the entire semester, committing to attend 80% of co-op days.

General Policies

1. Each child attending the co-op must be accompanied by a parent/guardian who will remain on site for the entire time.
2. Classes begin at 9 am. Please arrive by 8:45 to get yourself and students where they need to be in order for classes to begin on time. Students and parents arriving late to classes cause disruption and distraction to students already beginning their class activities.

*When signing up for co-op, further detailed policies and procedures are outlined.

Remember, have fun learning with your children!

If your family becomes delinquent in tuition or grades, you may become ineligible to participate in school events including field trips and co-op.

FAITH COMMUNITY CHRISTIAN SCHOOL COVENANT

1. We have fully read, understood, and agree to all of the policies and procedures in the FCCS Handbook. Therefore, we understand and are committed to faithfully record our quarterly or semester grades and attendance and to attend the August parent-faculty meeting. We accept that failure to do so may result in dismissal of our child(ren).
2. We also recognize our responsibility to bring up our child(ren) in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. We understand that this necessitates the weekly observance of the Lord's Day. We are committed, as a family, to worship the Lord weekly in the local evangelical church in which our membership resides. We understand that FCCS is committed to encouraging and promoting faith and life in Christ and will be communicating throughout the year with our pastor in order to contribute to the Christian growth in our family.
3. We agree to render as payment to FCCS tuition payments by the 16th of each month during the months of August through May. We understand that with dismissal of our child(ren), all outstanding tuition, fees, and late charges will be due within 30 days. We accept that if our account becomes two months delinquent that our child(ren) may be dismissed from FCCS.
4. We agree that a parent will be home and available to teach/supervise their child(ren)/student(s) during the children's school hours.
5. As Christians we must provide an environment conducive to the spiritual growth and development of our young people. We believe that Christian students should avoid practices which cause the loss of sensitivity to the spiritual needs of the world system and the loss of the Christian's physical, mental, or spiritual well-being (Romans 12:1-2). We will strive to ensure that our young people will adhere to the following standards at all FCCS functions:
  - Maintain high standards of courtesy, morality, and honesty.
  - Be kind, helpful and always respect those in authority.
  - Be dressed appropriately.
6. In signing this covenant with Faith, we acknowledge our responsibility before God to be faithful in all of these matters and that the Administrator of Faith Community Christian School also has a responsibility before God to help us and to hold us to our commitment.
